Miss Cathy Demme – IGCSE Art Teacher

Miss Cathy is the Visual Arts teacher for the entire school, from kindergarten through to secondary. She works with the teacher and coordinator, Miss Martha. Miss Cathy possesses her Master's in Education of Visual Arts from New York University and their workshops in Italy. She received her teaching certification in Education (K-12) and also has permission to give university level classes, where she has given classes in Art History and workshops in Visual Arts. She is trained in the practice of "Mindfulness," meditation, social and emotional intelligence, non-violent communication, and Tai-Chi Chuan. Currently, she studies via internet with the Center of Adolescent Studies in California. She is an artist, writer, and artistic and cultural consultant. Her classes at AISMA offer a great variety of themes and techniques, incorporating ideas of other classes in the areas of language, literature, history, sciences, dance, mathematics, civics and ethics, and physical education. A major objective of her classes is to help each student in his/her own development of artistic expression as a unique individual.
